Organization and Mission — Field

13 MISSILE WARNING SQUADRON (13 MWS)

This regulation gives the mission, organization, and responsibilities of the 13 Missile Warning Squadron located at Clear AFS, Alaska. It implements AFR 23-51.

1. Mission. Manages and operates the AN/FPS-50 and AN/FPS-92 radars. Provides tactical warning and attack assessment of a ballistic missile raid against the continental United States and southern Canada from the Sino-Soviet land mass and ocean areas. Warning data are forwarded to NORAD and USSPACECOM (Cheyenne Mountain Complex). Provides surveillance, tracking, and space object identification (SOI) support for space surveillance and intelligence operations.

2. Organization. The 13 Missile Warning Squadron is a HQ USAF controlled unit assigned to the 1 Space Wing. Operational resource management for the unit is provided by the Commander, Air Force Space Command. Operational control is vested in the Commander in Chief, USSPACECOM through the Cheyenne Mountain Complex or USSPACECOM backup command and control facilities. Attachment 1 shows the organizational structure of the 13 MWS.

3. Responsibilities. The Commander:

- a. Organizes, trains, and administers assigned personnel to accomplish the mission.
- b. Provides administrative and logistical support to assigned personnel.

c. Establishes training and standardization and evaluation programs for operations personnel as directed by the 1 Space Wing.

d. Operates the radar sensor to accomplish the mission.

e. Manages the fire protection and power production functions.

f. Provides security, law enforcement, pass and registration, and protection for government, personnel, and personal property.

g. Provides a morale, welfare and recreation (MWR) program for assigned personnel.

h. Evaluates on-site contractor performance in accordance with the statement of work and guidance from the contracting officer.

i. Makes sure adequate support is provided per support agreements with Eielson AFB, Alaska (AAC).

4. Relationships to Other Units or Agencies. The Commander may coordinate with other 1 Space Wing units on matters relating to standardization and mission-related activities. The Commander may also communicate with other agencies on mission-related matters.
